A VOCABARET SPECIAL by ADRIAN HOAD-REDDICK

Letterbank the following words into world capitals. As an aid, the clues are provided in alphabetical order by country. A letter bank is a type of anagram where all the letters of one word (the "bank") can be used as many times as desired (minimum of once each) to make a new word or phrase. For example, IMPS is a bank of MISSISSIPPI, and SPROUT is a bank of STUPOR or PURPORTS or PROUST OR SUPPORTS...
